COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

COM(82) 129 final

Brussels, 22 March 1982

Report from the Commission to the Council

Definition after consultation with the Committee for Information and Documentation on Science and Technology (CIDST) of the procedures and criteria to be applied to new calls for proposals under the Third Plan of Action in the field of information and documentation

COM(82) 129 final

Commission report to the Council

Subject: Definition after consultation with the Committee for Information and Documentation on Science and Technology (CIDST) of the procedures and criteria to be applied to new calls for proposals under the Third Plan of Action in the field of information and documentation.

1. When it adopted the three-year plan of action in the field of information and documentation for the period 1981 to 1983 (OJ L 220 of 6 August 1981) the Council decided not to allow the implementation of new calls for proposals provided for under this plan until 1982. It invited the Commission to define, in consultation with the CIDST, the procedures and criteria to be applied to these new calls and to present a report to the Council in order to permit this part of the Plan of Action to go ahead.
2. During 1981 the Commission, in consultation with the CIDST, examined the procedures and evaluation criteria to be applied to the new calls for proposals. First of all they examined the procedure applied during the first call for proposals in the field of information and documentation launched by the Commission on 29 November 1979. At that time the Commission and the CIDST had considered the procedures applied by some Member States in respect of similar calls.

At the end of this examination, the Commission prepared a document defining the improvements in procedures to be applied in future calls for proposals, including the main evaluation criteria (Doc. CIDST 510/81 final). The CIDST examined this document and delivered a favourable opinion on it (Doc. CIDST 508/81 final).
3. Since the procedures and criteria to be applied to the new calls for proposals have been defined by the Commission in accordance with the conditions and deadlines laid down by Council Decision of 27 July 1981, the Commission requests the Council to sanction the implementation of this part of the programme under the Third Plan of Action.
